

FARMERS SCORE HOUSTON POLICY

Atlanta Meeting Names Committees to Organize Protest.

ATLANTA, Oct. 1.—After adopting resolutions condemning the policy of Secretary of the Treasury Houston towards loans for holding cotton, and urging all farmers to hold their products for a "fair price," cotton men, bankers, merchants and others in mass meeting here appointed a committee of nine to take the matter up with heads of all farm organizations.

Members of the committee stated that they had decided to hold a meeting in Washington and to urge representatives of all lines of farm industry to express their disapproval of "any effort to curtail farm credit."

Cotton speakers declared costs cents a pound to produce, and 40 cents was said to be the minimum price for the staple.

J. J. Brown, state commissioner of agriculture, one of those who called a meeting, was appointed chairman of the committee. The other members are United States Senator Oke Smith, Charles S. Barrett, Harry Jordan, Charles H. Brand, M. L. Johnson, A. F. Hodges, C. G. Fitzpatrick and E. G. Daniel.

While the meeting in Washington being arranged, Mr. Brown announced, a speakers' bureau will be established and organizations will be effected in every county in the state. Farmers will be urged to hold their cotton and borrow money on from their local banks.

Congressman Upshaw today made public a telegram from Mr. Houston in which the secretary said: "I published no decision on the policy of the South in handling their cotton crop at a living price."

The secretary added that his statement had been favored "every legitimate effort to promote the orderly marketing of commodities but the government can not be a party to an undertaking to hold commodities off the market to enable the owners artificially to maintain prices or higher than fair prices."

Nonpartisan Club Slams Gov. Roberts

The administration of Gov. A. H. Roberts was severely scored by speakers at a mass meeting held Thursday by the Nonpartisan Political club.

Henry Hanson, one of the principal speakers, was very bitter in his denunciation of the governor. He urged all members to help defeat him at the general election in November.

At a state-wide meeting of Nonpartisan clubs held in Nashville recently, the organization went on record as opposed to Gov. Roberts and endorsed the candidacy of Alf A. Taylor, for governor.

Abe D. Waldauer was the principal speaker at the meeting, his subject being Americanism. Mr. Waldauer did not make a political speech either for or against any candidate but confined himself largely to the duty of every man and woman to exercise his or her right of franchise.

Other speakers were W. J. Rohr, Sr., secretary of the Memphis club, and Arch Schwab, president. No mention was made of prospective participation for the recall, but speakers indicated that these provisions would be another legislative trick put in the field. Many of those present, it is understood, are greatly interested in the recall election.

FIRE ON PRISON IN RUSH TO CAPTURE GIRL'S ASSAILANT

JONESBORO, Tenn., Oct. 1.—A mob of 35 to 50 men, mostly world war veterans from the national sanatorium at Johnson City, visited this town last night in an effort to secure and lynch a negro by the name of Dallas, who was arrested there late yesterday evening on the charge of alleged attack on a white girl serving as a waitress at the government institution.

The prisoner refused to surrender the jailer and thereupon the mob shot up the jail and slightly wounded one prisoner. All of the window panes were smashed with rifles. The state militia from Johnson City, about 15 in number, arrived and the mob dispersed.

A hearing has not been given the negro, the mob becoming so large and threatening in Johnson City that the magistrate got the negro into the sheriff's hands with orders to bring him to the county jail at this place. No further trouble is anticipated.

PONZI PAID $50,000 TO SETTLE $200 SUIT

Man Who Sold Him Office Furniture Was Plaintiff.

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—Charles Ponzi testified that he settled for $50,000 a suit of Jos. Daniels, based on a loan of $200, because the action brought by Daniels for a division of profits had tied up $52,000 of the money invested in Ponzi's get-rich-quick scheme, and, with a run on, Ponzi needed the money to meet the demands.

The story of the suit was developed by the referee in bankruptcy in questions regarding the beginning of Ponzi's discredited international postal coupon scheme, on which he promised profits of 50 per cent in ninety days.

When he opened offices, Ponzi said, he bought his furniture from Daniels, paying $50 in cash and having no further funds, borrowed $200 more from the furniture dealer. It was the $200 that Daniels claimed as the basis of a partnership with Ponzi, and on which he sought to recover $100,000.

MONEY COULDN'T BUY GOOD IT DID

Hebert Gained Twenty-Three Pounds—"I Will Praise Tanlac Long as I Live."

"If it were possible to sell the good Tanlac has done me there is not enough money in the universe to buy it," said A. M. Hebert, well-known painter living at Alderwood Manor, Bethel, Wash.

"I had suffered from stomach trouble for several years and got to where everything I ate disagreed with me," continued Mr. Hebert. "My kidneys, too, were in such bad shape I nearly always had a pain in the small of my back and I had the rheumatism in the shoulders so bad I had to give up several different jobs on account of it. My nerves broke up and I could hardly sleep nights and finally got to where I was hardly able to get about. To tell the truth, I doubted whether I would ever be able to work any more."

"Then I began taking Tanlac and I never saw anything to beat the way it knocked out my troubles. I have taken five bottles now and I never felt better in my life. The stomach trouble, rheumatism, pains and nervousness are entirely gone; I eat everything set before me, sleep sound as a log and work hard every day. Yes, sir, Tanlac did the work for me and I pass the good word on to others every chance I get."

Tanlac is sold in Memphis by the following agents: Warnock Drug Company, Weiss Pharmacy, Doyle-Turkey Drug Company, A. Bonkert & Co., two stores; J. H.
